Curfew Exceptions

A minor may be in a public place or Establishment under the following circumstances:

- A. While attending or returning home by a direct route, and within a reasonable time following the termination of a special function or activity supervised by adults and conducted by a the City of Bridgeport, a school, church, club, recreational or other similar organization sponsoring a function or activity for minors;
- B. While on an emergency errand;
- C. While on specific business or activity directed or permitted by the parent of such minor, and the minor has in his or her possession a writing signed by the parent containing the following information: the name, signature, address and telephone number of the parent authorizing the errand, the telephone number where the parent may be reached during the errand, the name of the minor, and a brief description of the errand, the minor’s destination(s) and the hours the minor is authorized to engage in the errand;
- D. While engaged in an employment activity, or going to or returning home from such activity, without detour or stop, by direct route, and within a reasonable time of leaving the place where such minor is employed.
- E. While attending or traveling directly to or from an activity involving the exercise of first amendment rights of free speech, freedom of assembly or free exercise of religion;
- F. When a minor, with parental consent, is in a motor vehicle engaged in bona fide interstate travel;
- G. When a minor is on the property or sidewalk directly adjacent to where such minor resides, or the property immediately adjacent thereto, if the owner of the adjacent property does not communicate any objection to the minor or the police officer.

It shall be unlawful for any person (including any minor) to give a false name, address, or telephone number to any officer investigating a possible violation of this section.

Violation– Penalty

Parents. If, after receipt of a warning notice, there is a second offense by a juvenile, this shall be treated as the first offense by the parent. For the first parental offense a parent shall be fined twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and for a subsequent offense by a parent the fine shall be increased to fifty dollars ($50.00) for the second, and ninety-nine dollars ($99.00) for the third offense.

Note* Applicable state fees and surcharges will be added to the fined amount.

Parents who elect to plead “not guilty” will be provided several social service parenting programs by the issuing Officer. Successful completion of one of these programs will nullify the fined amount.
